HOLIDAYS & OBSERVANCES

We at Gateway School District have the good fortune to have many opportunities to learn from those around us who represent a wide variety of religious practices, cultural traditions, and national celebrations. Recognizing this diversity, we have made every attempt to accurately identify in this calendar a wide-range of major holidays and observances that have special meaning to a considerable number of families in the School District and the surrounding community. It is our hope that this information will be helpful to families wanting to use this as their primary wall calendar and also school leaders and community organizations planning special events, important academic tests, and meetings in the coming year.

Primary Holiday Data Sources: 2010-2011 Calendar of World Wide Religion; Temple David Monroeville, PA;
Where variant dates were listed in these sources, we have listed the most frequently published date.
