

Upcoming Events at Monroeville Public Library

Family Storytime: Dino-vember

Saturday November 11th 10:30 am
All ages

The whole family can enjoy stories together. Join us for songs, rhymes, and stories with a dinosaur theme. Family Storytime is free with no need to register.

Grinchmas

Saturday December 2nd 10am-12pm
All ages

Join the Monroeville Public Library and our annual celebration of the Grinch. We will have all kinds of games and activities that even the Grinch would love! The program is open to all ages with registration required. The event is free.

Full STEAM Ahead

4th Mondays of each month 5:30-6:15pm
Grades 3-5

STEAM centered activities with different themes. November through January are part of our Lights Camera Action series where film-making meets science. Stay tuned for upcoming series!

Graphic Novel Book Club

Tuesday November 14th 5:30-6:15 pm
Grades 3-6

Graphic novels never get the respect they deserve. This club does just that. Each session we vote on the book we will read next time. We talk graphic novels, even if you haven't read the book yet! The club is free and we encourage registration

Winter Wonderland

Saturday December 9th 10am-12pm
All ages, stay in your car
Monroeville Community Park West

Fun holiday, drive thru event where we partner with Monroeville Parks and Rec Department. Drive through the park where you can see and meet many different holiday characters, including the Clauses, the Grinch, Anna and Elsa, and more. The event is free with no need for registration.
